Confidentiality Agreement

Dear Customer:

Your utility district has had a policy of keeping customer information confidential when possible. Utility districts are political subdivisions of the State of Texas and under the Open Records Act, must open all our records to anyone who asks to review them. The Texas Legislature has limited the availability of customer information through House Bill No. 859. This bill states that customers of the District have the right to request confidentiality of their names, addresses, telephone numbers and social security numbers as part of the District's account records.

If you wish your personal information would be kept confidential, please indicate below and return this form in the return envelope that has been provided for your convenience. If you do not return this form, your personal data will continue to be subject to scrutiny under the Open Records Act.

Yes, I would like my personal data to be kept confidential.
*Depending on the District there could be a one-time fee in association with processing this request

CONFIDENTIALITY OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION

Sec. 182.051. DEFINITIONS. In this subchapter:

- (1) "Consumer reporting agency" means a person who, for a monetary fee or payment of dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in the practice of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information relating to consumers in order to furnish a consumer report to a third party.
  - (2) "Governmental body" has the meaning assigned by Section 552.003, Government Code.
- (3) "Government-operated utility" means a governmental body or an entity governed by a governmental body that, for compensation, provides water, wastewater, sewer, gas, garbage, electricity, or drainage service.
  - (4) "Personal information" means an individual's address, telephone number, or social security number.

Sec. 182.052. CONFIDENTIALITY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION. (a) Except as provided by Section 182.054, a government-operated utility may not disclose personal information in a customer's account record, or any information relating to the volume or units of utility usage or the amounts billed to or collected from the individual for utility usage, if the customer requests that the government-operated utility keep the information confidential. However, a government-operated utility may disclose information related to the customer's volume or units of utility usage or amounts billed to or collected from the individual for utility usage if the primary source of water for such utility was a sole-source designated aquifer.

- (b) A customer may request confidentiality by delivering to the government-operated utility an appropriately marked form provided under Subsection (c)(3) or any other written request for confidentiality.
  - (c) A government-operated utility shall include with a bill sent to each customer:
    - (1) a notice of the customer's right to request confidentiality under this subchapter;
    - (2) a statement of the amount of any fee applicable to the request; and
    - (3) a form by which the customer may request confidentiality by marking an appropriate box on the form and returning it to the government-operated utility.
- (d) A customer may rescind a request for confidentiality by providing the government-operated utility written permission to disclose personal information.
- (e) A governmental body as defined by Section 552.003, Government Code, may withhold information prohibited from being disclosed under this section without the necessity of requesting a decision from the attorney general under Subchapter G, Chapter 552, Government Code.

Sec. 182.053. FEE. A government-operated utility may charge each customer who requests confidentiality under this subchapter a fee not to exceed the administrative cost of complying with the request of confidentiality.

Sec. 182.054. EXCEPTIONS. This subchapter does not prohibit a government-operated utility from disclosing personal information in a customer's account record to:

- (1) an official or employee of the state, a political subdivision of the state, or the United States acting in an official capacity;
  - (2) an employee of a utility acting in connection with the employee's duties;
  - (3) a consumer reporting agency;
  - (4) a contractor or subcontractor approved by and providing services to the utility, the state, a political subdivision of the state, or the United States;
  - (5) a person for whom the customer has contractually waived confidentiality for personal information; or
- (6) another entity that provides water, wastewater, sewer, gas, garbage, electricity, or drainage service for compensation.

Sec. 182.055. NO CIVIL LIABILITY FROM VIOLATION. A government-operated utility or an officer or employee of a government-operated utility is immune from civil liability for a violation of this subchapter.
